

The Chappaqua Library Fall 2011 Foreign Policy Discussion Program, as developed by the Planning Committee, will be as follows:

Oct. 3: The Israel/Palestine Conflict - Is the Two-State Solution Dead?
Facilitator: Tyler Beebe; Guest Speaker-Dov Waxman, Professor Middle East Studies, Baruch College

Oct. 17: Must the European Union Redefine Itself for the Euro to Survive? Global Implications? Facilitator Paul Jenkel; Guest Speaker-Credit Suisse Economist

Oct. 31: Demystifying the Arab Spring - Impact on U.S. Foreign Policy.
Facilitator: Tyler Beebe; Guest Speaker-To be determined

Nov. 14: Is China's Economy "Unstable, Unbalanced, Uncoordinated, and Unsustainable" as described by Premier Wen Jiabao? Facilitators: Mal Nechis and John Sorice; Guest Speaker Jienping Wong, Dean, Westchester Community College

Nov. 28: U.S./Pakistan Relations - Irreparably Damaged? Facilitator: Khusro Elley; Guest Speaker-To be determined

Dec. 5: Turkey's Emergence As a Critical Player Between East and West.
Facilitator: Geoff Kent; Guest Speaker: David Cuthell, Executive Director, Institute of Turkish Studies and Professor, Columbia University

All Sessions will begin at 10am in the Chappaqua Library Theater, 195 South Greeley Ave. Chappaqua. We encourage you to join us for coffee beginning at 9:30am.

On Oct. 3, several representatives of the Foreign Policy Association will attend and plan to take photos of the Great Decisions Group for inclusion in the Foreign Policy Association's Annual Report. We look forward to some interesting and very timely discussions.

Please encourage any friends to join us on any or all of the above dates.

Thanks

Joan Kuhn